Invitation to Platform Based Development Web-App Project Presentations on March 25th , 2025 – Day 1

Dear Students,

This is a formal invitation to the Platform Based Development Web-App Project presentations taking place on March 25th , 2025. This session is an opportunity for you to demonstrate the culmination of your efforts in web development, specifically focusing on using Python and the Flask framework (together with web technologies such as HTML, CSS, JavaScript etc).

Presentation Details

- Morning Session: 9:00 AM - 11:30 AM
- Afternoon Session: 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM
- Venue : NB-IOT Lab – DB0010

Each group will be given a 20-minutes slot, consisting of 15 minutes for the web-app presentation and 5 minutes for Q&A. It is imperative for all groups to be punctual and ready to present at their scheduled time. No rescheduling will be permitted. Groups who fail to present during their slots, for whatever reason, will attract a mark of zero.
